

WEBINAR

Democracy and Rule of law in crisis: National and EU context compared

ADAM BODNAR | Professor of Public Law, SWPS University of Social Sciences and Humanities, Commissioner for Human Rights of the Republic of Poland
The role of the EU Court of Justice and the European Court of Human Rights in preserving rule of law in Poland

ELENA-SIMINA TĂNĂSESCU | Full Professor of Constitutional and European Law, University of Bucharest, Judge of the Constitutional Court of Romania
Rule of law and independence of justice in Romania

CESARE PINELLI | Full Professor of Constitutional Law, Sapienza – University of Rome, Italian Substitute Member of the Venice Commission
Respect of the rule of law as embedded in Article 2 TEU and protection of the Union's financial interests

MONIKA FLORCZAK-WĄTOR | Professor of Constitutional Law of the Jagiellonian University in Kraków, Director of the Centre for Interdisciplinary Constitutional Studies
Constitutional Tribunal as a Threat to the Rule of Law in Poland

FEDERICO CASOLARI | Associate Professor of EU Law, Alma Mater Studiorum – University of Bologna
Taking loyalty seriously? The principle of sincere cooperation and the protection of EU fundamental values

Roundtable and Debate

SILVIA MARINO | University of Insubria
JAN SAWICKI | Sapienza – University of Rome
ANTONIA BARAGGIA | University of Milan
ARIANNA ANGELI | University of Milan
SIMONE GIANELLO | University of Milan-Bicocca

Chair: Angela Di Gregorio, University of Milan

4 December 2020
14.30-17.00

Zoom meeting

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/6986768670>